

Action Taken Report on 8th September, 2025

On 8th September 2025, Tengakhat College, Dibrugarh, organised a day-long celebration to commemorate the 100th birth anniversary of the legendary singer, lyricist, and cultural icon Dr. Bhupen Hazarika. The event aimed to honour the timeless legacy of Dr. Hazarika, popularly known as Bard of the Brahmaputra and Sudhakantha, whose songs continue to inspire unity, cultural pride, and social awareness.

The celebration began with a solemn floral tribute to Dr. Hazarika's portrait by the Principal, Mr. Jatindranath Gogoi, faculty members, and students. As part of the state guidelines, students and faculty presented the iconic song "Axom Amar Rupohi," celebrating the natural beauty and cultural richness of Assam.

Following the floral tribute and the iconic song performance, the Principal addressed the gathering, speaking about Dr. Hazarika's multifaceted contribution as a musician, poet, journalist, filmmaker, and social reformer. As per directed of the State Government, the College organised essay, quizzes and singing competitions themed around his life and contributions.

The winners of several competitions are as follows:

1. Essay Competition

- 1st Prize – Ankur Borah
- 2nd Prize – Rituraj Gogoi
- 3rd Prize – Mrinmoy Chutia

2. Quiz Competition

- 1st Prize – Naruttam Sonowal
- 2nd Prize – Khyodut Handique
- 3rd Prize – Anjali Chetry

3. Bhupendra Sangeet Competition
